

National Hall of Leadership

The National Hall of Leadership is a BSA Anniversary program that seeks to select, by nomination, the top 12 volunteers in the Buckeye Council. Our panel of judges was chaired by Bill Allen and included: Rick Brown, Eddie Elum, Roger Lile, Tim Maloney, Don Schneck and Lance White. Our nominees have been submitted to the National Office where the entries will be reviewed by a team of national volunteer judges. The selection of the Buckeye Council nominee for the National Hall of Leadership will be announced as part of the 100th Anniversary events at the National Jamboree at Fort A.P. Hill, VA during the national “Shining Light” broadcast.

Our congratulations to each of these Scouters, who were nominated by their peers, for having demonstrated character, confidence, courage; modeled Scouting values and virtues in their lives; shown the ability to see possibilities and inspire others, served as guides to instill confidence and enthusiasm; improved another’s life; put the needs of another before their own and demonstrated an attitude of leadership and service cultivated and practiced over a period of time.
